The new Saffron Restaurant in Minneapolis offers beautifully appointed small plates.

► EATING WELL

Saffron Restaurant & Lounge

Saffron is a refuge of warmth in downtown Minneapolis. From its dark, luxurious colors to playful entrées, this combination of Mediterranean and Middle Eastern cuisine makes every evening feel like summer, even if you've arrived bundled in wool and fleece.

The restaurant and its luxuriously long bar overlook a slice of Minneapolis' Warehouse District, but all eyes are generally directed toward the just-arrived plates, beautifully appointed with homemade yogurt cheese, sheep feta tart, lamb shoulder and other delights.

Located at 123 N. 3rd St., Minneapolis. Call 612-746-5533 or visit saffronmpls.com. —E. M.

85% beef. 15% rye. 100% Shapiro's.

So what's the best way to make a sandwich? Take a huge serving of our family's exclusive recipe for pastrami or corned beef and pile it high on thick, fresh-baked bread that's a meal in itself. That's how Louis Shapiro did it back in 1905. And that's how we still do it today!
